

Deposit Automation: A Future-Proof Strategy for Success

Does your current deposit strategy check all the boxes?

Learn how to boost your performance and create an even more profitable self-service delivery channel, while positively impacting customer experience and retention rates through deposit automation.

Consumer Benefits

- Convenient – 24x7 availability, bank on your time
- Easy to Use – No deposit slip or envelope required, screen flows walk the consumer through the transaction
- Fast Transactions – Avoid lobby or drive-up queues
- Instant Verification – View images of checks and cash on screen, faster deposit availability
- Detailed Receipts – Can include images of the checks and an itemized list of cash deposited

Employee Benefits

- Enhanced Employee Experience – Creates a less stressful environment where you can more easily interact with consumers
- Increased Sales and Referral Opportunities – Provides more time to focus on sales activities and identify how you can help consumers with their financial needs
- Reduced Cash Handling – Less time spent on managing and counting cash, processing checks

Financial Institution Benefits

- Enhanced Consumer Experience – Provides a more inviting and welcoming experience so consumers can bank when, how and where they want on their time
- Improved Consumer Satisfaction – Reduces wait times for transactions and creates a more technological and advanced feel to the branch and FI
- Strengthened Consumer Relationships – Creates more opportunities to deepen relationships with consumers when they do enter the branch
- Increased Branch Efficiency – Much lower transaction cost compared to a teller transaction
- Business Continuity – What happens if you need to close branch lobbies? This may have already happened to your network during COVID or other natural disasters. This is now the number one driving force pushing FIs who historically have not invested in deposit automation ATMs to do so ASAP.
